Alex Morgan

Director of Product | Growth & Onboarding for B2B SaaS

SUMMARY

Product leader who turns onboarding and pricing into growth. Built Northwind's first growth team and lifted trial-to-paid from 9% to 13% in a year.

EXPERIENCE

Director of Product, Growth — Apr 2022 - Present

Northwind Software, Toronto

- Lifted trial-to-paid conversion from 9% to 13% in a year by rebuilding onboarding around the first report a customer creates.
- Built Northwind's first growth team (2 PMs, 6 engineers, 1 designer) and its weekly experiment review.
- Redesigned pricing into three plans with usage limits, raising average revenue per account 18%.

Senior Product Manager — Sep 2019 - Mar 2022

Northwind Software, Toronto

- Shipped 12 integrations in 18 months, which became the top reason customers gave for upgrading.
- Cut first-90-day churn from 7% to 5% with in-product checklists and a health score the success team used daily.

Product Manager — Jun 2016 - Aug 2019

Fabrikam Analytics, Montreal

- Led the dashboard builder rewrite used by 4,000 customers; support tickets about dashboards fell by half.
- Ran 60 customer interviews a year and turned them into a shared problem backlog for three teams.

Business Analyst — May 2013 - May 2016

Contoso Retail, Montreal

- Built the weekly sales forecast the merchandising team planned inventory from.
